

PiClock

Inspection Report

Jacob Alspaw

Arbazuddin Ahmed

Kareem Taleb

Benjamin Young

Correctness

The team has found no issues in the correctness of the design document in terms of the information describing the functionality of our application, as well as the correctness of the design document as a whole.

Clear Presentation

The team has found that the design document presents information clearly and the diagrams presented in the design document are able to be depicted clearly.

Spelling and Grammar

The team has found that the design document presents no issues in terms of English spelling and grammar.

Ambiguity

The team has found that the design document presents no ambiguity, as the document is clear and contains precisely the information needed to understand the functionality of our application.

